General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR)

1. The data controller for Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps is the GAA, Croke Park Stadium, Jones' Road, Drumcondra, Dublin 3. The Cúl Camps representative is Charles Harrison, National Cúl Camp Coordinator, Games Development Department, Croke Park, Jones Road, Drumcondra Dublin 3; charles.harrison@gaa.ie
2. The Data Protection Officer of the GAA is Kelly Cunningham.
3. The GAA may share your data with the following Cúl Camps personnel: National coordinator; county coordinator; club coordinator; club personnel; camp coach.
4. Your/your child's personal data will be used for the purpose of administering the Cúl Camp and performing the contract with you. If you fail to provide the information requested, your child will not be accepted to participate in the Cúl Camps. If you have explicitly consented that the GAA may do so by ticking the relevant boxes on the application form, your/your child's personal data may also be used to:
 - Administer medication to your child, convey your child to a doctor or hospital and to share that information with medical personnel.
 - Contact you by e-mail or telephone for research purposes.
 - Include you/your child in the Kellogg's draw.
 - Notifying you of future Kellogg's GAA Cúl Camps.
5. You may withdraw your consent at any time by writing to the National Cúl Camp coordinator. If you withdraw your consent, such withdrawal will not affect the lawfulness of the processing prior to the withdrawal of your consent.
6. Unless you have explicitly consented to us retaining your/your child's data for the purpose of notifying you of future Cúl Camps, we will delete your/your child's data within two months of the conclusion of the Cúl Camp for which your child was registered.
If you have consented to us retaining your/your child's data for the purpose of notifying you of future Cúl Camps, we will retain your/your child's data for a period of two years, unless you withdraw your consent earlier.
7. You have the right to access any personal data which the GAA will hold about you/your child or to request the rectification of any information that we have about you. If you would like to access or rectify your personal data, please send your request in writing to the National Cúl Camp Coordinator.
In certain circumstances, you have the right to request that the GAA erase your/your child's personal data, the right to restrict the use of your/your child's data and the right to data portability. For further information, please write to the National Cúl Camp Coordinator.
8. If you have a complaint in relation to our processing of your/your child's information we encourage you to contact the Data Protection Officer of the GAA with a view to resolving it informally. Should you wish to make a complaint or report a breach in relation to your personal data, you can do so by emailing the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner using the following email address: info@dataprotection.ie
9. The GAA do not process your personal data in connection with automated decision making.
