

Réamhrá Ón Uachtarán

Is cúis áthais agus bróid domh an leabhrán seo a leainseáil le linn mo Uachtaránachta agus tréaslaím leis an Choiste Gaeilge as ucht an leabhráin a chur le chéile. Tá súil agam go n-úsáidfeair é go minic agus go mbeidh an Ghaeilge le cloisteáil go rialta ag cruinnuithe, ag ócáidí móra agus beaga!) de chuid CLG agus ag na cluichí. Is dóiche go dhioctfadh linn go léir feabhas a chur ar an teanga a úsáidimid ag na cluichí in aon chor!

From my travels as Uachtarán, I meet many people who wish to improve their Irish, but haven't the time to attend the many classes and courses required to give them fluency. This book should be an invaluable resource to all of you who wish to use the language in your GAA business and I hope it will be of use to you at meetings, in writing letters and in giving Irish the place it deserves in our association.

I am also happy that this is the last function I will perform as Uachtarán and wish all Gaeilgeoirí well in their attempts to promote our beautiful native language throughout Cumann Lúthchleas Gael

Go gcúmhdáí Dia Sibh i gCónaí,

Seán Ó Ceallaigh,
Uachtarán,
Cumann Lúthchleas Gael

Réamhrá/Intreoir – Introduction

The Gaelic Athletic Association is a national organization which has as its aim the promotion of the national identity on the island of Ireland through the conservation of Irish games and pastimes. The Association's aims include support also for the promotion of the Irish language, Irish dancing, Irish music and songs, and other aspects of Irish culture.

Through its clubs, the Association seeks to sustain Irish people's awareness of and love for their national heritage and to help foster a community spirit.

Sport provides a wonderful opportunity for personal development. The use of the Irish language in sport can be used also as a means of personal development as has been proven in many areas over the years.

The GAA's Millennium Plan for the Irish Language encourages the acquisition and use of Irish as opposed to knowledge of the language alone. The aim is that increased Irish language usage among members of the GAA who speak the language will result in an increased usage among its supporters.

This booklet aims to equip GAA supporters, players and committee members with the vocabulary and phrases which are used commonly around the club, at matches, at important club and county events and in the signage in GAA premises.

It is hoped that, if GAA members learn a few phrases from this booklet each day, that their confidence and desire to use the language will increase. When saying the phrases to yourself, please ensure to emphasise the part of the phrase that is in bold print.

Tá súil againn go mbainfidh tú leas agus taitneamh as an leabhrán seo.

An Ghaeilge ar an mBileog/Bhileog Foirne – Irish on the Teamsheet

The job of filling in the teamsheet usually falls to the club secretary. Below is all the relevant information required to fill in the teamsheet as Gaeilge.

Firstly, you'll have to fill in the date.

Laethanta na Seachtaine – Days of the Week

An Luan – (eh loo-an) Monday; An Mháirt – (eh warch) Tuesday; An Chéadaoin – (eh kaydeen) Wednesday; An Déardaoin – (eh jerdeen) Thursday; An Aoine – (in eenyah) Friday; An Satharn – (eh sahurn) Saturday; An Domhnach – (eh do nah).

Míonna na Bliana – Months of the Year

Eanáir – (anirh), Feabhra – (fowra), Márta – (mwaarteh), Aibreán – (ibrin), Bealtaine – (baaltinyeh), Meitheamh – (meh-hew), Iúil – (ool), Lúnasa – (looniseh), Meán Fómhair – (maan foe-war), Deireadh Fómhair – (jeroo foe-war), Samhain – (Sow -in), Nollaig – (Noll-lick).

When writing the date, you just put a ú beside the number
So Sunday 23rd July is An Domhnach 23ú Iúil

Foclóir – Vocabulary

Comórtas – (come-urtis) Competition
Sraithchomórtas – (sryh come-urtis) League
Craobhchomórtas – (creeve come-urtis) Championship

Cluiche ceannais – (cleeh eh kyanish) Final
Cluiche leathcheannais – (cleeh eh lah kyanish) Semi-final Cluiche ceathrúcheannais – (cleeh eh kyahroo kyanish) Quarter final

It is important to make a real effort to write the players' names in Irish. There are many books containing Irish surnames, but the one most used is An Sloinnteoir Gaeilge agus an tAinmneoir by Muiris Ó Droighneáin. This is available or can be ordered from most bookshops. If there are non-nationals on your team, it is better to leave their entire names in their own language.

An Ghaeilge ar an bPáirc/Pháirc/ag an Seisiún Traenála – Irish on the Field/at the Coaching Session

Nowhere, do we hear a more colourful use of language than at the gaelic match.

An Ghaeilge san Fhógra Báis – Irish in a Death Notice

(in the Press)

Sometimes it is necessary to place a Death Notice in your local paper to acknowledge the bereavement of a club member. Below is a template for use in this situation.

Fógra – Notice

Ó Choiste agus ó bhaill Chumann Lúthchleas Gael _____
From the Committee and members of GAA _____ (insert name of club)

Is oth linn bás _____ (name of deceased), (Athair/Máthair/Deartháir/Deirfiúr/Uncail/Aintín /Seanathair/Seanmháthair) ár (gcomhimreora/gcomhbha(i)ll/gcomhchoisteora) _____ (name of relative), agus déanaimid comhbhrón lena theaghlach/lena teaghlach. Ar dheis lámh Dé go raibh a anam/hanam uasal

We are sorry to hear of the death of _____ (name of deceased),
(Father/Mother/Brother/Sister/Uncle/Aunt/Grandfather/Grandmother) of our fellow (player/member/committee member) _____ (name of relative), and we extend our sympathy to his/to her family. May his/her gentle soul be at God's Right Hand.

Example of a Death Notice for the father of a player

Ó Choiste agus ó bhaill Chumann Lúthchleas Gael _____. Is oth linn bás Sheán Uí Mhurchú, athair ár gcomhimreora Liam, agus déanaimid comhbhrón lena theaghlach. Ar dheis lámh Dé go raibh a anam uasal.

An Ghaeilge sa Litir – Irish in the Letter

When writing a letter from your club, it is appropriate to use as much Irish as possible. Clubs and counties who have Irish in their headed notepaper and whose officials use the language in correspondence display a commitment that reflects well on their attitude towards the cultural side of our association.

Below are some examples where Irish could be used in written correspondence or in an e mail.

An Tús – Starting Off

A ____, a chara – Dear ____

If your letter is to someone who is not a known friend; e.g. a council official, government employee, etc, you start your letter with:

A Dhuine Uasail/Bhean Uasal – Dear Sir/Madam

Na Chéad Línte – First Lines

If you are writing to a fellow gael, it is nice to start by stating how you are doing and asking how the other person is.

Conas taoi/Conas tá tú/Cad é mar atá ag éirí leat – How are you getting on?

Tá ag éirí go hiontach liom – I am getting on great

Tá mé ar muin na muice – I am on the pig's back

Tá gach rud in ord agus in eagar anseo – Everything is fine here

You may want to include a subject line or reference in your letter:

Maidir le: Scéal a chur chuig réiteoirí – Re: Notification to Referees

If your letter is to make representation, below are some lines you might use:

Tá mé ag scríobh chugat... – I am writing to you...

le gearán a dhéanamh – to make a complaint

le comhairle a fháil – to receive advice

le hiarraidh ort – to appeal to you

le heolas a fháil – to receive information

Ag Cur Críche – Finishing Off

How you finish your letter depends on who you are sending it to.
Below are some examples of nice endings to a letter:

Scríobh ar ais gan mhoill – Write back without delay

Ag súil le scéala uait/Ag dúil le scéala uait – Looking forward to a reply from you

Do chara buan – Your great friend

Le meas – With Respect

Is mise le meas – Yours Sincerely

Samplaí eile:

Le gach dea-mhéin,

Legach dea-ghuí,

Beir bua,

Beir bua is beannacht,

Treise leat.

Fógra Cruinnithe – Giving Notice of a Meeting

Tabhair faoi deara go dtionólfar cruinniú den choiste ar an dáta seo thíos:

Please be advised that a committee meeting will take place on the date below:

Seo a leanas clár an chruinnithe:
